THE COMMITTEE TOOLKIT: GOVERNANCE MADE PRACTICAL

Council is offering free governance workshops for local community groups, sporting clubs and volunteer committees.

Presented by Dr Kristine Peters, these practical sessions will help committee members strengthen governance skills, make better decisions, reduce volunteer burnout and support long-term sustainability.

Workshop Dates

Jamestown: 17 September, 6pm to 9pm, Sir Hubert Wilkins Building
Gladstone: 12 October, 6pm to 9pm, Gladstone Memorial Hall
Laura: 19 October, 6pm to 9pm, Laura Memorial Civic Centre
Spalding: 26 October, 6pm to 9pm, Spalding District Hall

RSVP: (08) 8664 1139 or admin@nacouncil.sa.gov.au

Free Projector Screen Up for Grabs

Council has a Nobo 16:10 Wall Screen available free of charge to a local community group or school.

The projector screen has never been opened or used and remains in its original packaging. Measuring 2400mm x 1600mm, it is suitable for ceiling installation and would be ideal for community halls, meeting spaces, clubs, and organisations seeking to enhance presentations, training sessions, or community events.

The screen will be offered on a first come, first served basis.

Interested community groups are encouraged to contact Northern Areas Council on (08) 8664 1139 or email admin@nacouncil.sa.gov.au to register their interest.
